

Types of Sentences

1. Simple Sentence:

- A short sentence that contains at least one _____ and one _____.
- A simple sentence also often has at least one _____.
- Is one independent clause. (One thought or idea is happening)

The subject in a simple sentence is: a _____ (_____, _____, _____). Or it is a pronoun. (I, He, Him, She, Her, Them, They, Their, etc...)

The _____ in a simple section is the _____.

The _____ in a simple sentence is a noun or pronoun.

Examples:

The teacher arrived late to class.

The student is sending a text.

List one more example (or come up with your own): _____

2. Compound Sentence:

- Joins two independent clauses together (two ideas — this could be two related simple sentences)
- In order to join two ideas together, a compound sentence must use a _____.

OR

- Coordinating Conjunction (____ _)

F _____ A _____ N _____ B _____ O _____ Y _____ S _____

Examples:

Julia likes eggs; Jennifer does not.

Sarah wanted to go to the mall, but Leo wanted to stay home.